

DORRIDGE SURGERY
PATIENTS PARTICIPATION GROUP
OPEN AFTERNOON

SATURDAY 7TH JUNE 2014

2.00pm to 4.00pm

Medicines Management

Will be available to talk about managing the waste of medicines & how people can help reduce waste & costs – waste medicines cost Solihull £750,000 a year, so anything we can do to save the waste will help greatly!

Sainsbury's

will be here to answer questions about the improvements to the surgery, and about how the temporary accommodation and the new surgery will look.

Matthew Cooke

The Deputy Medical Director (Strategy & Transformation), Heart of England NHS Foundation Trust and Professor of Clinical Systems Design, Warwick Medical School will be here to talk about the wider health economy and show how our urgent care will look at Solihull hospital in the future.

Light refreshments will be available!

Dorridge Patients Participation Group are members of the National Association for Patients Participation.
